

THE Non-Associating LIST

MEMBERS that refused to subscribe

TO THE

National Association,

FOR THE

of His Majesty's Most Sacred Person, &c.

Almighty God, the Champion and Defender of our Champion, and under, the most of Princes, our Gracious and Protestant Sovereign Lord him, to deliver him from the Malice of Cut-Throats and Blood-Hounds; by a timely Discovery of their Popish and Hellish Machinations; whilst, by that Justice vidence, Redit in Autorem scelus, the Parricides are caught in their own Snare; Their infernal Measures are all broken, and Shame and Confusion is all the Reward of their De-Conspiracy. And as this Second Happy Revolution (for so I may call it) has Confirmed our Established him on that Throne, on which the First only Seated him; Our Nation, the Dispelling of that once threatening Cloud, has this cheerful Prospect before them, all the Felicities a People can enjoy under the Auspicious Reign of a Crowned Head; their Darling than their Sovereign; And considering likewise that this horrid and black-lots has indeed been the Nation's greatest and fairest of Blessings: For the Detection pression of Treason is always the Growth of Loyalty; the Friends of the Government ly strengthened in their Zeal and Fidelity, but the very Enemies of it are Converted glutful Village of so execrable a Villany: It will therefore be no unreasonable vice to the Publick, and no little Glory to the Nation, in the present unanimous of both Houses of Parliament, (an Example since so Universally copied through Kingdom) to give you, in this following List of the Non-Associators, a Ballance in and Strength of his Majesty's firmest Friends, that in that Illustrious and Honour-subscribed the National Association; and the other Colder Gentlemen of that that have refused it.

As agreed upon by the Honourable House of Commons, it is followeth

There has been a Horrid and Detestable Conspiracy, Formed and Carried on by Papists, her Wicked and Traiterous Persons, for Assassinating his Majesty's Royal Person in Order Invasion from France, to Subvert our Religion, Laws, and Liberty: We, whose Names Subscribed, do Heartily, Sincerely, and Solemnly Profess, Testify and Declare, that his Majesty King William is Rightful and Lawful King of these Realms. And we do Mutually and Engage to stand by and assist each other, to the utmost of our Power, in the Support and De-Majesty's most Sacred Person and Government, against the late King James, and all his Adhe-And, in case his Majesty come to any Violent or Un timely Death (which God forbid) We do hereby reely and Unanimously Oblige our Selves, to Unite, Associate, and Stand by each other, in Revengance upon his Enemies, and their Adherents; and in Supporting and Defending the Succession of him, according to an Act made in the First Year of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, An Act, Declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and Settling the Succession of the Crown.

Lordships Association differs so little from that of the Commons, that I do not tran-
; but shew you how they vary: Instead of the Words [King William is RIGHTFUL King] their Lordships insert, sent Majesty King William hath A RIGHT BY LAW to the Crown of this Realm, the late King James, nor the pretended Prince of Wales, nor any other Person, hath any right to the same, &c.

ty have of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, have already subscribed their Associations; and who were at first absent, come in daily; it hath been refused only by 14 of the Number.

• One of these last Seven was an Eminent Member, who sometime since Spewd Sir P——n out of the House of Commons for Corresponding with the late King when I Tork, and who told King Charles, That the Commons were not given to Change; which, he spoke generally, or excepted himself; is a Moot Point, as the Men of Law call it. I have this to remark, that of eleven of our English Counties, viz. Bedfordshire, the Members, Cambridge 6. Cumberland 6. Durham 4. Hereford 6. Leicestershire 4. London and Westminster 8. Monmouthshire 3. Nottinghamshire 8. Rutland 2. Suffolk 16. in all 6 to their Honour be it Recorded, had not one Recusant.

'Tis further observed, as the Doubting Lords are but few; so of the twenty your Large and Rich County of Devon, you have but three Dissenters; and of Essex shire, no more likewise than three, and but one of the eighteen in the Spalden shire. No more than one out of twelve in another of the largest Counties of England, Suffolk. To augment their Number, Essex (another of our greatest Counties) furnish eight. Cheshire one out of their four. Derbyshire one out of four also; and such another one out of eight. The Diminutive, but Opulent, County of Huntingdon sent them another out of four: and that Honest County of Surrey one out of four.

You find not one of the sixteen Members for the Cinque Ports in this Non-Association. the twelve Counties of Wales have of their twenty four Members but seven Refusers, one was of King James's Counsel against the Bishops.

That in the seven old Associated Counties, viz. Essex, Suffolk, Norfolk, Cambridge, Huntingdon, Bedford and Hereford, there are but 3 Recusants; and you will find above four times that number of Associating Lords there. In London and the contiguous Counties, viz. Middlesex, Berks, Wiltshire, Hampshire, Surrey, Sussex, Kent, Lincoln, and Northampton, which make ther 11 Counties, and send no less than 172 Members; you will find, upon review of the going List, that there are but 21 Refusers.

I am only forty, when I compare the two Athenian Counties, viz. of Oxon and Cambridge, that the Alma Mater Cantabrigia, with her purer Fountain Head of Cham, should run so close to have her whole six Members all Subscribers: And the unhappier Oxonian Step should have her Bed of Thames, or rather duller Charwel watered more muddily.

9 Representatives to have 7 Recusants. However, to the Honour of providence recovers its Reputation; for his Channel runs clearer when it waters the Wales when, in imitation of her greater Metropolisian Representatives all Subscribers for Representatives, viz. her Common Council, all there present, the whole Body consisting of all subscribed, one only excepted, who undoubtedly might affect that Singularity of getting a Name by it, as possibly having none before.

From so many Auspicious Stars, all Shining in one Constellation, our Ascendant, I doubt not, but, without the Prognosticks of a Partridge or a Gallin, Britannia may reasonably promise her self warm Blessings, and smiling Years; in defiance the Impotent Malevolence of her Enemies.
